

20 HYDE 23 PARK JAZZ FESTIVAL

23 & 24 SEPTEMBER

WELCOME!

Welcome to the 17th Annual Hyde Park Jazz Festival. We hope you enjoy this free two-day celebration of jazz, creativity, and community on the South Side of Chicago.

The Hyde Park Jazz Festival was created in late 2006 when cultural leaders on the South Side met with the Hyde Park Jazz Society to develop an annual event that would bring new audiences into the many arts and culture venues in Hyde Park and celebrate jazz's great legacy and bright future on Chicago's South Side. We are tremendously grateful to all of our sponsors, donors, and venue partners for their continued support.

Now in its 17th year, the 2023 two-day Festival includes 37 free performances!

These concerts represent the creative diversity in Chicago jazz and feature some of the most compelling emerging and venerable artists on the national and international scene. In addition to performances and other programs, the festival includes local cuisine, artisan pop-up shops, and picnic areas on the Midway.

The HPJF continues its special projects this year! We are thrilled to work with Ensemble Dal Niente as we welcome creative flutist and composer Nicole Mitchell home by premiering two new works at the Hyde Park Jazz Festival: South Side Love Letter (world premiere), Mitchell's tribute to Chicago for ensemble and electronics and Decolonizing Beauty (U.S. premiere) for Artifacts Trio with chamber orchestra.

We are also thrilled to once again have so many extraordinary women bandleaders, composers, instrumentalists, and future makers sharing their work from across generation, geography, and stylistic trajectory. Don't miss Melanie Charles, Endea Owens, Bethany Pickens, Camilla Mennitte, Silvia Bolognesi, Meagan McNeal, Joan Collaso, Courtney Bryan's Requiem, Dee Alexander's Ancestors Reign and much more. These artists are a powerful creative force in jazz!

We welcome legends of jazz from near and far to the HPJF stages. This year we are honored to present Chicago's own legend Ari Brown and to celebrate the legendary Von Freeman with a 100th birthday performance to close the HPJF on Sunday by his son and legendary saxophonist in his own right, Chico Freeman. We are also pleased to welcome Adegoke Steve Colson home. Joining our own legends are some of jazz and poetry's most significant voices, including NEA Jazz Masters Kenny Barron and Louis Hayes, as well as Javon Jackson with the incomparable Nikki Giovanni. We invite you to delve into the program for details about these extraordinary artists and their contributions. There is so much more to share—please dive into our program for all the details!

The Hyde Park Jazz Festival would not be possible without the support of our nearly 200 volunteers. If you ever want to know what keeps the Festival Team going, it's the support and enthusiasm that come from a community of individuals willing to contribute their time and energy to make the Festival happen. All of the artists who have agreed to share their work with you are extraordinary. We invite you to consider the significance of this event for Chicago, and your opportunity to help us keep it Free, especially during these still challenging times. We would like to be here for everyone well into the future. We sincerely appreciate your contributions of $10 to help us keep going! Thank you and ENJOY!

SAFETY GUIDELINES

The Festival is a precious celebration of culture and music on the South Side. During these times, we need the Festival more than ever. It is challenging to produce public events at this time and we ask for your help in keeping the Festival going by being supportive of our safety measures. The Midway area is staffed with security; you can find information about security around the University of Chicago here: <https://safety-security.uchicago.edu/>. We continue to monitor public health guidelines and advise attendees to mask according to their individual needs and comfort. There is an EMT present on the Midway on Saturday from 3pm-9pm to address any first aid needs; visit the Information Tent on Sunday for basic first aid supplies. Call 911 in the case of an emergency.

ACCESS AND SPECIAL NEEDS

Hyde Park Jazz Festival aims to be accessible to all guests. In order to help us create the best experience for you, please contact us ahead of time with any questions, needs or concerns at info@hydeparkjazzfestival.org.

The Festival is located across many unique venues throughout Hyde Park. Find specifics regarding accessibility for each venue on their individual websites. Both the West Stage and the Wagner Stage at the Midway are fully wheelchair accessible.
